TO ADVERTISERS.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

A Card.

The Committee of the St. John the Baptist Society, of St. Albans, who had the management of the late excursion on Lake Champlain, return their warmest thanks to the gentlemen of the St. Albans Band, for the kind and generous reception given by them to the Plattsburgh Band, who accompanied the excursion. These gentlemen hope that before long they will have an opportunity to return to their St. Albans friends, the same compliments they have received from them.

L. H. Biron,
E. Tatro,
L. Leriche,
Chas. Marchessault,
A. Moussette,
President of the Organization.

PATENT FLY CATCHER.—We notice that Letters Patent were granted on the 18th ult. to our townsman Wm. McGowan of St. Albans and J. Madison Hale of Georgia, for improved device for catching flies. Guess if we could have tried it in our Sanctum a while ago we would have fetched a few.

PROF. KING went up in his balloon from Rutland to-day, or such was the plan. He must have gone out of the storm into the sunshine.

A LEADING Republican of Philadelphia prophesies that Pennsylvania will go for Grant. We hope he may not be disappointed, but much more work than is done in Vermont will be required to save that State from falling into the hands of the enemy. It was saved once by the soldiers—may it be as happily saved again. The enemy is the same.

GEORGE D. BURRIDGE, of Boston, took three lady friends out to ride in St. Johnsbury, Vt., on the 26th ult., and in endeavoring to turn around in a narrow place, backed horse, vehicle, passengers and all through a board fence and down a bank fifty feet high. No one was killed, though all were badly demoralized, and the carriage required reconstruction.

VOTES OF TRAVELLERS.—Voting on railroad cars and steamboats is much in vogue. On Wednesday last, a vote was taken on the Rennselaer & Saratoga Railroad, between Saratoga and Troy, which gave Grant 104, Seymour 71. On Saturday morning between the two points, it stood Grant 90, Seymour 39.

STATE FAIR at Burlington, Sept. 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th. Railroads carry for fare one way. Every farmer, and farmer's wife, and son, and daughter should be there. Every person who eats of the fruits of the earth, or of flesh, or of fowl should be there.

We need not urge the horse-racers or horse-fanciers to be there, for of course they will attend to a man.

And, finally, let it not be forgotten that our County Fair comes next week.

Everything indicates that the State Fair will be the most successful agricultural show ever held in the State, as regards the number of visitors, the display of horses, cattle, implements, fruits and flowers and the products of the industrial and mineral wealth of Vermont. A new and substantial gallery has been constructed in place of the old one, the grounds have been properly graded, and new buildings erected sufficient to accommodate the Fruit, Floral, and Mechanical departments. One building, Mechanics and Floral Hall, is 300 feet in length and 40 feet wide. Our Burlington neighbors have been at great expense in preparing the grounds, and can congratulate themselves on having everything in "apple-pie order."

The General Superintendent of the Fair is HENRY S. MORSE of Shelburne, with the following competent gentlemen in the different departments:

Mechanics Hall—SAMUEL EYAKTS, Cornwall.

Floral Hall—WM. H. HOLIBARD, Shelburne.

Horses—HENRY B. KENT, Dorset.

Cattle—HENRY HAYWARD, Rutland.

Shop—DANIEL KIMBALL, Rutland.

Three thousand five hundred dollars, are offered including extra cattle premiums, and the arrivals of stock up to this time are larger than any previous year, and if the weather holds good, there is every indication that Burlington will be flooded with visitors.

A special purse of $500 has been made up by the people of Burlington, for a special "trof" of the best horses on Saturday, after the Fair closes—a very good supplement.

SUDDEN DEATH AT BAKERSFIELD.—A correspondent writes:—On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5th, while several young men and boys were engaged in foot-racing upon the race course, Mason Peters, a man aged about 50 years, and apparently in good health, joined in the crowd and ran about twenty rods; after which he came back and sat upon the ground, remarking that he could not "keep up with the boys," and fell back dead. A post mortem examination showed that enlargement of the heart was the cause of death, it weighing 17 ounces; the usual weight being 7 to 8 ounces.

H. J. A.

CURIOUS.—Glasterbury, in Bennington County, which is the only banner Democratic town in the State casts 18 Democratic votes to one Republican. Strange as it may seem, however, the town elected the only Republican, Geo. Eddy, to the Legislature. It is supposed that eighteen could not agree on a candidate and therefore all turned on to Mr. Eddy.—Times

PERSONAL.—Lawrence Roche, for some years past local editor of the Rutland Herald, has retired from the position, and is succeeded by John DeF. Brakett, who is promoted in the Herald office. Mr. Roche was, during the war, a correspondent of the New York World. He commenced newspaper life as a carrier in the Boy's Journal office, Ogdensburg, and was the keenest and most thorough carrier we ever knew. He has made the local columns of the Herald always readable and interesting. May his successor do as well.

DECREASE IN THE DEBT.—The statement of the Secretary of the Treasury shows the following to have been the public debt on July 31st, 1868, and on July 31st, 1865, precisely three years previous:

Debt July 31, 1865	$2,757,253,427
Debt July 31, 1868	2,490,324,843

Decrease in just three years, $266,928,584

CUSTOMS.—The receipts at the Custom House in Richmond, during the month of August were $4019.95. About 45,000 pounds of butter were imported, and nearly 800 head of cattle.

EAST BERKSHIRE.—Change goes on slowly yet perceptibly here. Paul & More's new store presents a neat and fresh appearance, and we trust the goods (now arriving) will do credit to the enterprise and taste of the firm.

W. S. Rublee & Son have a good substantial wall nearly completed, which is to be the foundation of their new store to be built by Mr. A. W. Goff of Richmond, and completed, we understand, in time for the winter trade. The location is near the residence of Hon. W. S. Rublee, upon the east side of the street, and the proposed dimensions of the principal building is 50 by 26 feet.

Last week we were favoured with a call from two Richmond equestrians, and on the occasion Mrs. Lawrence, of this place, a lady of 82 years of age, accompanied them through the streets on horseback and, in our judgment, rather carried off the palm for horsemanship.

The drought is severe, and wells and springs are failing.—Sentinel.

PERSONAL.—Maj. Z. K. Pangborn, editor of the Jersey City Journal, is mentioned in connection with the Congressional nomination from that district, in place of Mr. Halsey, the present Representative, who declines a re-nomination.

A MOVIE TALE—WARRANTED PURELY VEGETABLE, AND NONE GENUINE UNLESS SIGNED BY THE PROPRIETOR.

CHAPTER I.

It wuz in Noo York city, that gay metropolis, the seat of luxury and refinement, and the home uv John Morrisey and the Black Crook.

Thither hed I come, after O how many days uv tireesome walkin ez the rear guard uv a drove uv cattle uv a thousand hills uv Western Pennsylvania. I wuz in Noo York, and on Broadway wuz a site! The rumblin, jumblin, mass uv wagons and stages and coaches! The sidewalks filled with a hurryin mass, the rich, the poor, the high, the low, the proud, the humble, the aged, the youthful!

I gazed into the window uv a drug store. Fatal gaze! Unfortinit look! That look hed an influence onto my fuher life.

Wat did I see?

A card.

Thus it red: "Barrett's Hair Restorative!" with a pietur uv a man with thin, gray lock afore usin it, and the same man with heavy hair ez black ez Poe's stately raven uv the days uv yore, after yosin it.

Only this and nothin more.

It wuz enuff. My hair wuz gray. I bought a bottle and applied it ez by directions on the wrapper.

CHAPTER II.

Home agin! home agin! from a furin shore! I wuz on the threshold uv my homestead, wich wuz a home to me, humble though it wuz. Loozier Jane, the wife of my buzzin, wuz at the gate, a gossipin with her nabor, ez wuz her wont.

"Loozier Jane!" shriekt I.

"See-er!" sed she in a surprised tone.

"Ha!" list I, "is this the treatment a fond husband receives on his return to the buzzum uv his family?"

"Husband! yoo? is't possible? Where is them gray lock? Hast grown young agin, ez when in manhood's prime thou woodst and won me? It cannot be—and yet—that breath! It is! It is!" and she swoonid at my feet. The children I hed more trouble with, but they finally acknowledged me. The nose wuz the feecher they took hold uv; that wuz unchanged.

CHAPTER III.

"Husband mine!" sed she to me in her winninet tone, "thy locks is black, while mine, alas! is gray. Buy for me also Barrett's potent cure, that I may be as fast uv you knowd me in love's young dream!"

Cood I resist the entreaty? Nary. I bought a bottle, and lo! in a month she wuz transformed. Her rusty gray hair became as black as jet. A new set uv custom-made teeth, wich cost me $50, completed the metamorphose, and she wuz young agin—her youth costin me $51 cash.

Disastrous investment! Four weeks from that date, she run off with a Yankee pedlar, who sposed she was but twenty-four!

Kin I sue Barrett and git judgment for her valyoo? Alas, no! And so I plod on wearily and alone, a miserable objik. I cood marry agin as a young man, but this fond heart kin never thump for another.

False Loozier Jane. Too efficashus Barrett!

THE END.

This "efficashus" article is sold by all druggists throughout the country.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. 4w

Reader, if your Druggist or Merchant does not keep Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil on hand to sell he will send it for it at your request, and sell it at the manufacturer's lowest price at retail. "It works like a charm." dw

It is not probable that Absalom was obliged to use any hair preparation to force his hair to grow to such an extreme length as it is said to have attained. In our day, however, people quite frequently find it necessary to call scientific skill to aid them in this respect. Such will find their every wish supplied in "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative."—Davenport (Iowa) Democrat. d&w.
